MEET KAREN

Thank you so much for contacting me about your session, I am thrilled you are here!

I am a professional photographer located in Eagle River, Alaska, specializing in family, baby, newborn and maternity photography. I have been doing photography for as long as I can remember, but I officially opened my photography business in 2015.

I was born and raised in Alaska, although I have also lived in Florida, Texas, Washington, and Arizona. We moved our family back home in 2015, and I am so happy to be back in Alaska! I have two kids, a boy and a girl, and we also have a silly little dog. I love talking photography, I have a terrible sweet tooth, and I love making people laugh.

MY STYLE

I love color, so I tend to bring that out in photos without oversaturating. I don't have a heavy hand with editing, but I do enhance images to make you look your best and bring out the colors and life of your background. I shoot both natural and studio light, so I am always ready for any type of lighting situation, but I do have my own preferences for time of day.

YOUR maternity SESSION

I do not put a time limit on my maternity sessions, so we are shooting until you feel like we have gotten everything you wanted from your session (within reason!). All of my maternity sessions come with digital images to be chosen from an online proofing gallery after your session. You will receive beautifully edited high resolution images with a print release with each session, no matter the package you choose. Once you are booked, I can help with location and outfit choices to match your vision for your session! I have a client closet with plenty of designer maternity dresses for you to choose from, or if you don't see a dress in the closet you love, I am happy to order one custom for you as well!

Maternity sessions are for immediate family only, up to 6 people. If you want to include extended family, please contact me for pricing.

booking your session

BEFORE YOUR SESSION

As soon as you make the decision to book, contact me!

After you have made the decision to book, we will work together to decide on a date for your session, as well as a date for you to come in and try on and pick a maternity dress for your session. I can offer both indoor and outdoor photography, although I always prefer outdoor to in studio, no matter the weather. After we have chosen a date, I will send you a contract that needs a digital signature, and an invoice for a $50 retainer to hold your session date. This fee is applied toward your session fee, due at your session.
